

2020 International School Library Day colouring in competition

By entering this competition, you agree to the following terms and conditions:

This is a game of skill. Chance plays no part in determining the winner.

Each entry will be individually judged by a panel appointed by the Australian Library and Information Association (ALIA). Personal details and content will not be provided to a 3rd party.

To enter your picture in our 2020 International School Library Day colouring in competition, send us a photo or scanned image of the coloured-in campaign poster.

Submissions should be sent through in JPEG, PNG or PDF format and are open to everyone, with the contestant's age stated in the email. Submissions are due by 5:00pm AEDT on 13 October 2020.

Please email entries to media@alia.org.au, we will not be accepting submissions via post. Winners will be chosen at the sole discretion of ALIA and will be notified in late October.

By entering the competition, you agree to give ALIA the right to publish the work in its entirety for promotional purposes online and in print.

Copyright of the work remains with the creator.

By submitting your artwork, you agree that

- Your submission is offered without restriction.
- ALIA has unlimited right to publish, use, modify and publicly display and disseminate the content for the purposes of 2020 International School Library Day promotion in all media without limitation or seeking additional approval.
- You confirm that the content you submit is your own/original and that if any 3rd party content has been submitted, you have sought and obtained any necessary permissions. The competition is open to everyone. Contest opens 5 August 2020 and closes 5:00pm AEDT 13 October 2020.
